

BALLYPORTRY CASTLE

The 15th Century Gaelic Tower House

BEFORE YOU ARRIVE

When you have made your booking we will put you directly in touch with Marianne who will be your guide. She will be available to help you during your stay. Our normal arrival time is 4 in the afternoon.

Meals and other extra treats can be arranged in advance with Marianne. We will send you the Menus once you have made your booking.

It is a great convenience to book a meal for the first night of your stay as inevitably guests are always tired after a journey. Marianne will have the fires lit and the heating on for a couple of hours before you arrive. She will show you around and explain the workings of the 500 year old gaelic tower house.
